

Mark Leeman
RE/MAX First Choice
Cranston, RI
www.realestaeri.com

MARK LEEMAN BIO

Experience:

Mark has over four years of residential and commercial real estate sales experience in the state of Rhode Island. He makes it a priority to never stop learning. Mark is always a student and prides himself on regularly attending and participating in business development workshops, sales seminars and courses both locally and nationally. Mark is a member of the Greater Providence Board of Realtors and has achieved "Multi-Million Dollar Producer" status every year that he has been practicing real estate. He has recently been selected to appear as the Providence Realtor expert on HGTV's "National Open House". Mark will appear in four episodes that will air in the fall of 2008. Prior to his career in real estate, Mark worked in the marketing, public relations and insurance industries.

Professional Affiliations:

Muscular Dystrophy Association - Volunteer for numerous fundraising and event planning committees throughout the year. Mark gives an appreciable donation from every commission to charity on behalf of his client(s).

Greater Providence Board of Realtors - Member since 2002.

Graduate of "RE/MAX Succeed" - Mentorship training program.

Currently participating in "Coach 2000"- Mentorship and coaching program that focuses on finding one's strengths and applying them to business.

Graduate of "100 Days to Greatness" - Mentorship and training program that teaches agents how to build a real estate practice that is 100% by referral with no cold marketing techniques.

Education: B.A. Communications with a Public Relations/ Marketing concentration, Rhode Island College, Providence, RI. (May 2001)

Personal Interest: Mark is a music enthusiast who enjoys spending time with his family and friends. He has a sincere appreciation for learning every day of his life. Mark believes that every one he comes into contact with has something to offer from a learning perspective. Mark does a considerable amount of volunteer work with the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA). He makes an appreciable donation to MDA in his client's name from each and every transaction. Mark also loves traveling, wine, film and running.